Under the provisions of the act of Congress approved February 21, 1872, a Territorial government was organized in the District of Columbia. Its results are such that full realization of the functions of the Territorial officers, a cessation of movements which Washington has been used to, and the district rapidly becoming a city worthy of the nation's capital. The citizens of the District have voluntarily taxed themselves to a large amount for the purpose of contributing to the advancement of the seat of Government, and will do so until they have paid off all their debts.

We are patient and long-suffering, and we believe in the largest liberty; but these must be a limit to all rights, and mass assemblies of the people, like those of Boston, D. C., &amp; Co. must choose quickly whom they intend to follow and serve. To remain to party cannot be permitted among men holding places high under the shadow of the Capitol. Good nature and forbearance toward such men is the most imbecile, and can no longer be admitted as wisdom. Men can change seats no longer easy or comfortable, but they must not be permitted to wear our party uniform while holding communion with the enemy.

Many other ideas may be called from the great practical speech of Senator Morton on the duties of the hour; but we prefer the reader to his own judge, and consider with care the entire efforts as appearing in our Congressional report.

Mr. EDMUND'S remark on the propriety of Schurz "carrying French colors," yesterday, was very good, and if we can judge from the way Mr. S. wined, it hit pretty hard. The point made by Senator Edmunds, that ordinary French correspondence was sufficiently "official" for the sensitive Senator, was most excellent.

The New York Herald smirks over the House of Representatives which makes the New York World rave as only the hired organ of British monopoly can rave. Thus does the free trader apply the "party whip" to the sholders of three members of the opposition, who due to the ribs of all ridiculous "honor," "frank and corruption."

NOTH CAROLINA FOR GRANT.

The Radical State convention, held at Columbia, S. C., after an interesting session, resolved by the Union Republican party of South Carolina in convention assembled, that the Radicals in the administration of President U. S. Grant, and the Radical party in general, policy, which has reduced the national debt while lessening the public taxes, and at the same time preserving the public credit, were "victors."

A. resolved, That the profound gratitude of South Carolina goes to take the Regal majority of the Forty-second Congress for their aid in the effort to subdue the forces of Secession and to President U. S. Grant for the prompt and decided enforcement of that act, whereby the Radicals, for the sake of freedom and justice, have been successful.

The delegates elected to the National Convention had nothing but decided resolution, although not pledged, are "only to be good and true Republicans, and in favor of the renomination of President Grant."

RESIGNATION OF COLONEL ROBB.

Colonel T. P. Robb, collector of the port of Savannah, has handed his resignation to the President. Colonel Robb has filled several important Federal offices in Savannah, and has been a prominent worker in the Republican party. He established the first Republican newspaper ever published in Georgia, and is now a member of the state of the port of Savannah. Colonel Robb, he resigns solely because, under the state of local disbursements and personal hostilities, he fears that his continuance in office may be prejudicial to the best interests of the party. His accounts at the Treasury have always been prompt, accurate and in regular order, and, notwithstanding his removal, he is still loyal to his party, and is a Grant man to the bitter end. He was recently attacked through the courts in a prosecution for malfeasance, on which charge he was acquitted by the evidence of the witnesses for the prosecution.

NEW JERSEY SILEK.

The manufacturer of silk in this country has always been a special pet of patriots since the days of Oglethorpe to the present.

The New Republic of Camden, New Jersey, thus refers to a protection meeting in Paterson.

The protection meeting at Paterson last week, had all the popular elements of an intelligent enthusiasm. It was called in behalf of the silk manufacturers, and was well attended.

The vestments of Prince Polaire during the reign of the Palais Royal were the badge of the nobility in France.
